

Resource Name	Contact Name	Address	Contact Information	Description
PA Integrated Pest Management (PA IPM)	Michelle Niedermeier Dion Lerman Program Coordinators	Penn State Extension Center 675 Sansom Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106	(215) 471-2200 mxn14@psu.edu dll33@psu.edu http://extension.psu.edu/pests/ipm	The Pennsylvania Integrated Pest Management Program (PA IPM) is a collaboration between the PA Department of Agriculture and the Penn State College of Agricultural Sciences. The mission of this program is to promote effective pest management that results in the efficient protection of our food, fiber, health, home and industrial resources in a manner that is profitable, safe and environmentally compatible.
National Nurse Led Care Consortium (NNCC)	Deepa Mankikar, Environmental Health Project Coordinator	Centre Square East, 1500 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19102	(215) 731-7145 dmankikar@nncc.us http://www.nncc.us/	The NNCC advances nurse-led healthcare through policy, consultation, programs, and applied research to reduce health disparities and meet people's primary care needs. We support more than 250 nurse-managed health clinics and nurse-led care settings serving millions of vulnerable people across the nation.
Community Asthma Prevention Program (CAPP) at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia	Dr. Tyra Bryant-Stephens, Medical Director	3401 Civic Center Blvd. Philadelphia, PA 19104	(215) 590-5261 https://www.chop.edu/centers-programs/community-asthma-prevention-program-capp/contact	The Community Asthma Prevention Program (CAPP) offers free asthma education classes in familiar environments, such as schools, churches, daycare centers and community centers throughout the city. Classes are structured so both caregivers and children with asthma can learn simultaneously.

Center for the Urban Child at St. Christopher's Hospital for Children	Gayle Higgins, Nurse Practitioner	160 Erie Avenue Philadelphia, PA 19134	(888) 247-4754 https://www.stchristophershospital.com/our-services/pulmonology-allergy	St. Christopher's Hospital for Children's Section of Pulmonology and Allergy provides diagnosis and treatment of respiratory disorders of infants and children through innovative medical services, clinical research, and community outreach. We provide consultation, diagnostic testing and comprehensive management of diseases that affect the lung including asthma, cystic fibrosis, lung disease of prematurity, neuromuscular diseases, congenital lung diseases, sickle cell disease and sleep-disordered breathing.
Philadelphia Department of Public Health, Division of Disease Control	Jessica Caum, Assistant Program Manager	500 S. Broad Street Philadelphia, PA 19146	(215) 685-6731 jessica.caum@phila.gov http://www.phila.gov/health/AboutDPH.html	The mission of the Philadelphia Department of Public Health is to protect and promote the health of all Philadelphians and to provide a safety net for the most vulnerable.
Amerihealth Caritas-Healthy Hoops		100 Stevens Drive Philadelphia, PA 19113	(888) 674-8780 http://www.amerihealthcaritas.com/programs/healthy-hoops.aspx	AmeriHealth Caritas identified these chronic conditions and their impact among our membership. To address them, we created Healthy Hoops—a hands-on basketball event for children ages 3 to 18. The initiative teaches kids, parents, and extended families how to manage their asthma and weight through appropriate use of medication, proper nutrition, monitored exercise and recreational activities.

Environmental Protection Agency	Prentiss Ward, Children's Health Coordinator	1650 Arch Street Philadelphia, PA 19103	(215) 814-2813 ward.prentiss@epa.gov www.epa.gov	EPA's coordinated approach on asthma promotes scientific understanding of environmental asthma triggers and ways to manage asthma in community settings through research, education and outreach. With federal, state and local partners, we are building the nation's capacity to control asthma and manage exposure to indoor and outdoor pollutants linked to asthma.
Consulate of Mexico/Ventanilla de Salud	Dafne Tuz Martinez, Health Window Coordinator	111 South Independence Mall East, The Bourse Building, Philadelphia, PA 19106	(267) 471-7297 saludfia@sre.gob.mx http://ventanillas.org/index.php/en/component/services/?view=description&id=23	In a safe and friendly environment, the staff of the Ventanilla de Salud located in the Mexican consulate, can refer you to the health services available where you live and also provide you with information and education on a variety of health topics. Our main goals are to help prevent diseases, to promote healthy habits and to refer you to health services, like those offered by community clinics where you can establish a medical home and receive the medical attention that you need.